On October 28th, 1922 With Mr. Pfeiffer proceeded to the District Attorney's office at New Brunswick for the purpose of seeing Prosecutor Mott. When we arrived there we were met by Mr. Mason who informed us that Mr. Mott was not in. Further Mr. Mason told us that the reason he wanted to see us was about some story that Mrs. Gibson had been threatened. He then gave a description of the person who had threatened her saying that the man wore no glasses but had a mark on his nose showing that the person wore glasses, also that the said person had a derby hat and that David had told Mr. Mason that the description would answer Mr. DeM. Mr. Mason treated this more as a joke and conveyed the impression that it was one of Davids yarns to get publicity.

Later on left for New York with Mr. Pfeiffer, Sweeney and a Chicago newspaper reporter, who accompanied us on the train.
